For most, commencement is both an ending and a beginning; an opportunity for the graduates to reflect on what has been, while anticipating new, perhaps unknown, challenges. The best speeches are those that have meaning for the largest number of persons. The most well received speeches are those that reflect on the common educational experience and share, in a personal way, the value of the education received at UNLV.

The time allotted for the student commencement speech is 3 minutes.

Please provide the following information:

1. Attach to this form a typed page detailing the public speaking experiences you have had, including presentations. Include a brief discussion of why this particular opportunity interests you.
2. Attach to this form a typed draft of the speech you propose to present to the members of the Class of 2009. The proposed speech has to be an original work. The committee will not return the draft. The selection process may include an interview with the selection committee, at which time the proposed speech will be presented and discussed.

These materials are to be delivered to the office of the Vice President for Student Affairs (FDH-514) by 5 p.m., Thursday, October 29, 2009.
